

Help Miss Pill find the ill baby zebra so she can give him some medicine.

The word search puzzle consists of a grid of letters arranged in a roughly rectangular shape. The letters are: e, zz, i, ll, a, z, u, ff, o, ss, e, ss, o, ff, u, z, a, ll, i, zz, ff, o, i, zz, e, ss, u, z, e, o, z, zz, i, ll, a, z, u, ff. A nurse character, Miss Pill, is at the bottom left holding a syringe. A zebra family (an adult and a baby) is in the center. Three wooden ladders are placed on the grid: one connecting the 'z' and 'a' in the top row to the 'z' and 'a' in the second row; another connecting the 'o' and 'ff' in the second row to the 'o' and 'ff' in the third row; and a third connecting the 'ss' and 'e' in the top row to the 'ss' and 'e' in the third row.

Can you get the two dolls?	Can you spell funny?	Can Jill have one dress?	Where are the four quill pens?	Did you go to the dentist?
I miss my cat.	There is one glass of milk left.	Tim still must get the drill.	Come here and get Jill to fix the cuff of your jacket.	I did not get a glass of milk.
A quiz is a test.	Toss the four pucks to the net.	Zip up your vest.	See the cactus in the sand.	The insects went buzz.
They have to pick up the rocks from the grass.	Go to the class and get the four objects.	She sat on some moss.	Do not yell!	One, two, three, four, go!
